

Withers

Mayor.

*Die Martis, xiv^o. die Septembris, Anno Domini 1708. Annoque Regni
Reginæ A N N Æ, Magnæ Britannix, &c. septimo.*

TO the end that all Persons Owners of any Spices, Drugs, or other Wares or Merchandises, Garbleable within this City and Liberties thereof, and desirous to have the same Garbled, may know who is the proper Officer to perform that Duty, and where to repair to him: These are to give Notice, That William Withers of London, Esq; is (by Virtue of an Order of the Common-Council of this City, made pursuant to a late Act of Parliament, entituled, An Act for Repealing the Act of the First Year of King James the First, entituled, An Act for the Well Garbling of Spices, and for granting an Equivalent to the City of London, by admitting Brokers) duly admitted and appointed to execute the said Office of Garbler within this City and the Liberties thereof; and that the Rates and Duties for Garbling (which have been lately settl'd and appointed by the Common-Council, in pursuance of the said late Act) do of Right belong, and are to be answered and paid to the said William Withers, whose Office for the Purposes aforesaid is kept at his Dwelling-house in King's-Arms-Yard in Coleman-street. And that due Publication hereof may be made, It is ordered, That this Intimation be forthwith printed and published, and affixed at the Royal-Exchange, the Custom-House, the several Wharfs and Keys, the said Office, and all other Publick Places within this City and Liberties thereof.

GIBSON.